Department of Defense Consumer Credit Disclosure

Federal law provides important protections to members of the Armed Forces and their dependents relating to extensions of consumer credit. In general, the cost of consumer credit to a member of the Armed Forces and his or her dependent may not exceed an annual percentage rate of 36 percent. This rate must include, as applicable to the credit transaction or account: the costs associated with credit insurance premiums; fees for ancillary products sold in connection with the credit transaction; any application fee charged (other than certain application fees for specified credit transactions or accounts); and any participation fee charged (other than certain participation fees for a credit card account).

My payment obligation for my loan is as follows: My payment schedule will be monthly with a minimum payment of 3% of the total balance (rounded up to the next whole dollar) or $10, whichever is greater. I may call 855.682.0794 toll-free to receive the contents of this disclosure orally.
